

Upon their return from a thirty-eight day tour of the West, fourteen suffrage envoys, flanked by hundreds of Washington suffragists, collected a group of Senators and Representatives at the head of the steps of the main entrance to the Capitol and told them the four million women voters expect the party in power to pass the Susan B. Anthony amendment.

Harris & Ewing photo from Paul Thompson

British officers in council in the desert in Western Egypt, where a campaign has been waged against tribesmen led by Nuri Bey.

Photo from
Talbot M. Cushing

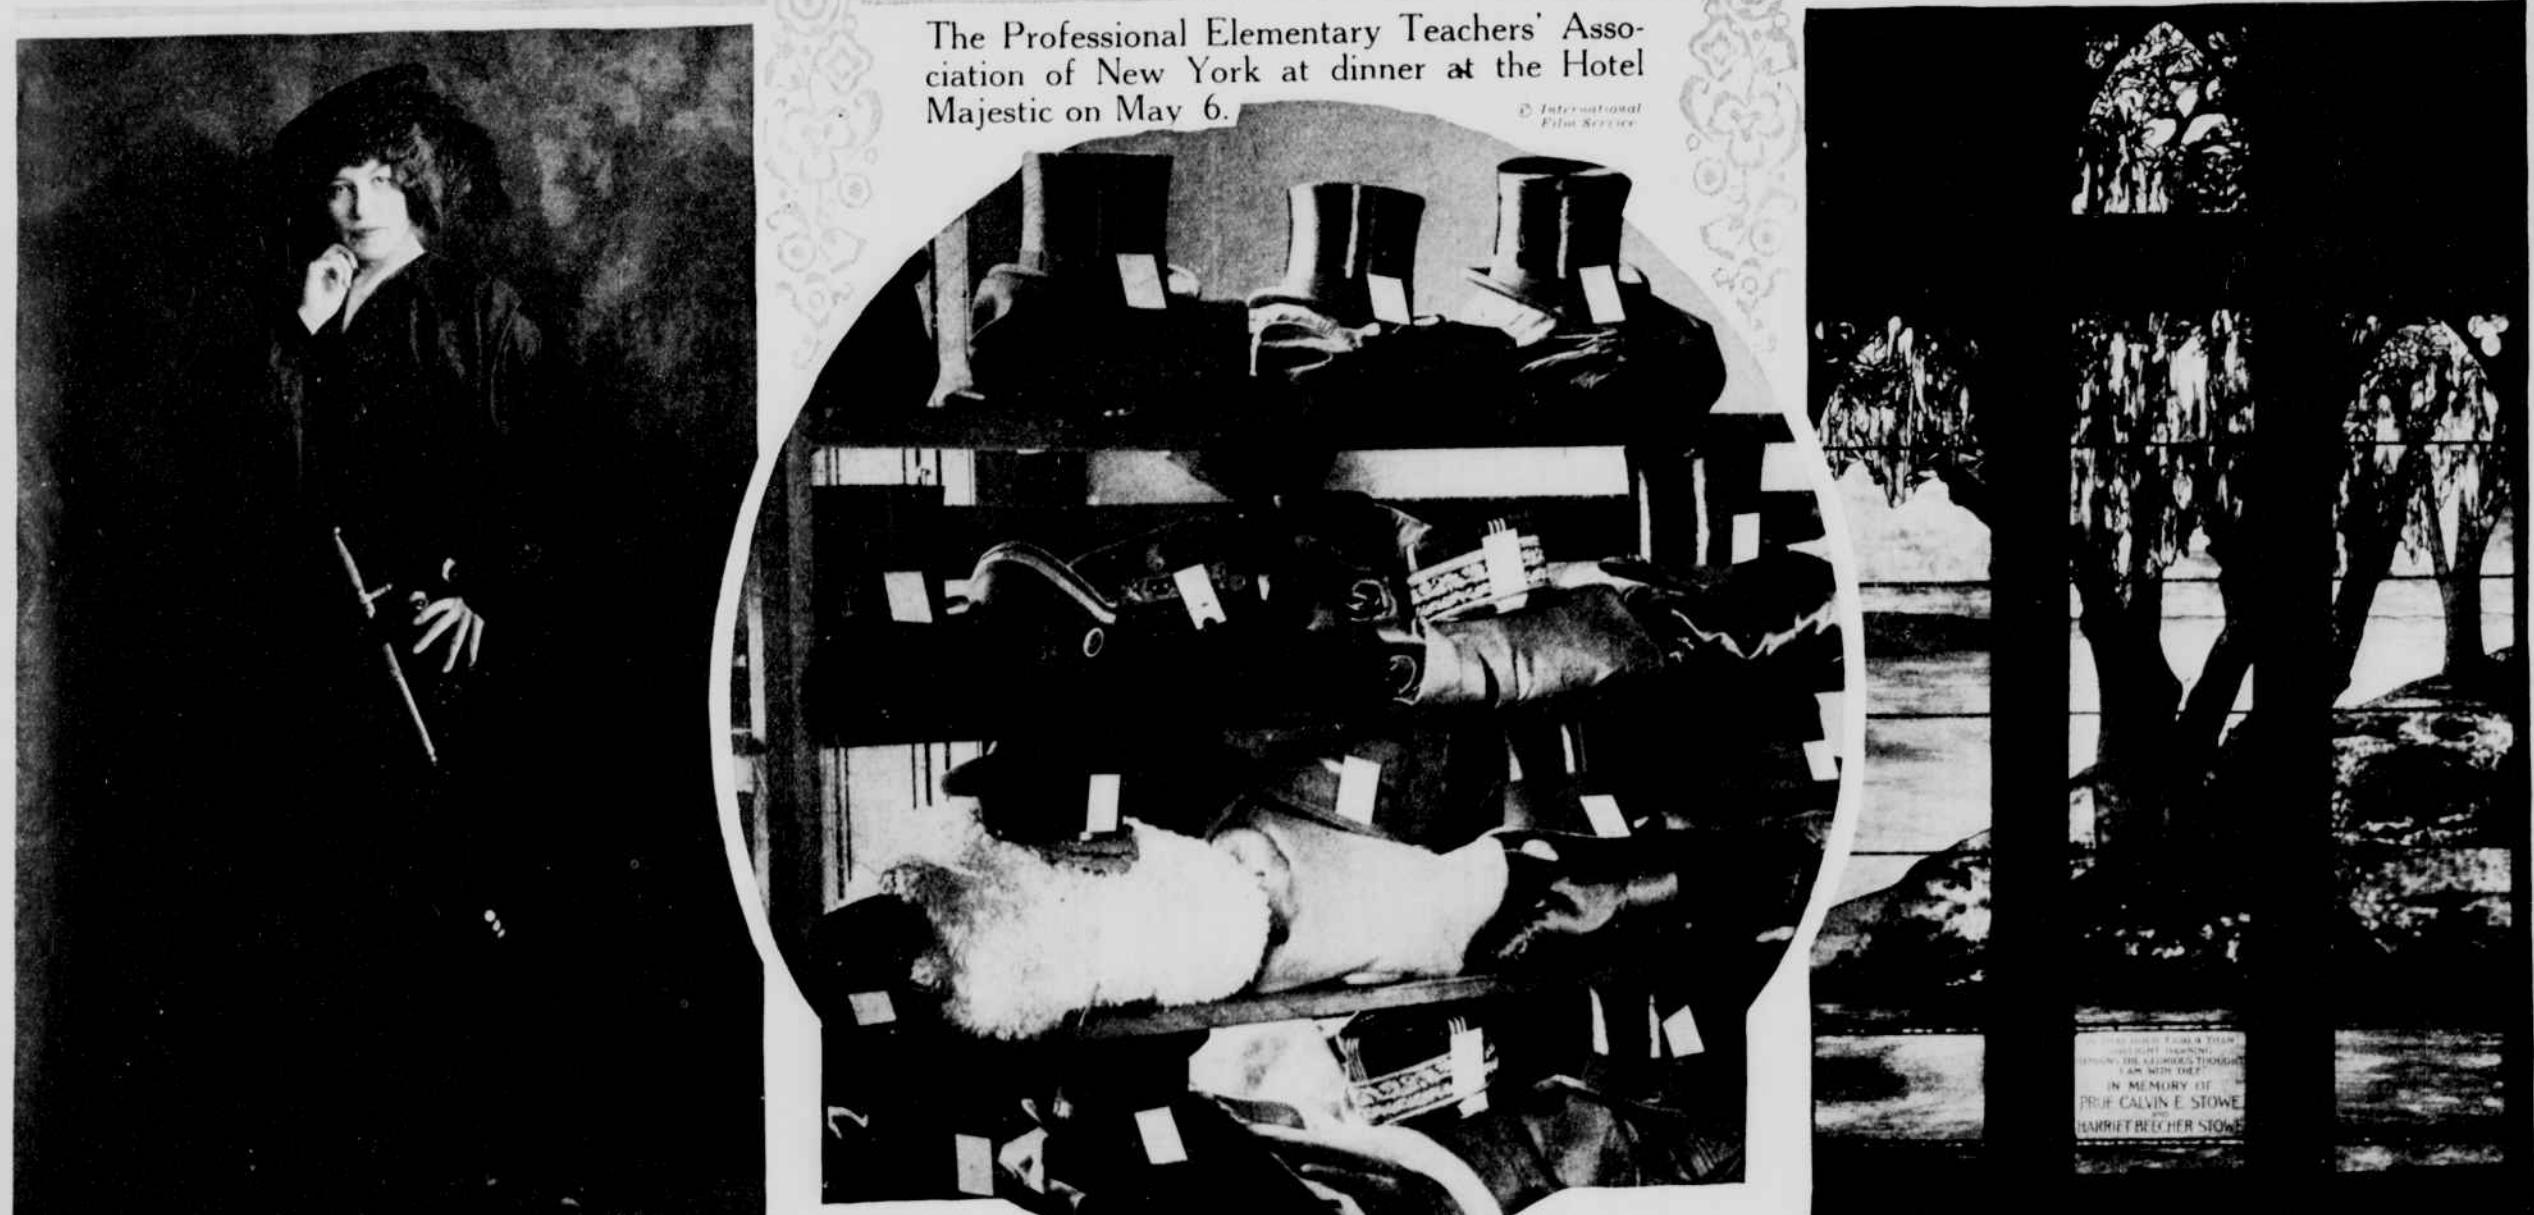

Mrs. Frank Lusk, chosen by Montana Republicans as a delegate to the National Convention. She believes in Preparedness and Equal Suffrage.

Underwood & Underwood

Miss Susan Millar, a Virginian, who is studying with Mme. Sembrich for the grand opera stage.

Photo by Aspinwall

Miss Lucile Sniffen as "Hamlet" in a Scudder School girls' Shakespeare Night arranged by Mrs. H. M. Hovey at the Hotel Ansonia.

Champlain Studio

The hats of the Allies at a recent Paris Conference. Top row, second, Premier Asquith's; last, Sir Edward Grey's; second row, second, Colonel Yovanovitch's, Serbia; fourth, General Joffre's; third row, first, Lord Kitchener's; second, General Robertson's.

Medem Photo Service

A memorial window for Professor Calvin E. Stowe and Harriet Beecher Stowe to be placed in the Church of Our Saviour at Mandarin, Fla., where Mrs. Stowe once lived. Contributions for the memorial came from all over the United States. The tree is an exact copy of one at the Stowe home. The window is of Tiffany Faville glass.

Courtesy of Tiffany Studios